

BY YOUTH FOR YOUTH

YOUTHINK MAGAZINE

home

about youthink

submit content

contests

teachers

reviews

contact us

| CDs | local bands | movies | concerts | interviews | plays | games | anime | books |

2008 Annual Scotiabank & BCSPCA
paws for a cause

Back to CD reviews

Clara Lofaro

CLARA LOFARO Perfekt World

By Atiya Jaffar – Johnston Heights, Surrey BC

Get your pop without the mush!

Although Clara Lofaro's new album would still fall within the realms of mainstream female pop, she adds a new twist to the genre. On the record, Lofaro combines her promising vocal strength with a ranging assortment of instruments to create a unique mixture. The song list also bears much diversity. Track-by-track, the album goes from beautifully poetic and mellow to absolutely bad-ass. To give credit where credit is due, Perfekt World is anything but predictable music. Each song has an originality of its own both musically and lyrically. This album is primarily for pop fans, but is also perfectly sap-free and certainly worth a try for anyone.

Atiya's Favourite Track: Waterfall