Clara Lofaro's "Perfekt World" simply is

ALBUM GROOVE WITH FRASER WAREHAM

The Moose Jaw Times Herald

CLARA LOFARO PERFECT WORLD

Clara Lofaro, hailing from Toronto has been associated with today's top singer/songwriters but quite frankly, she stands above the norm to these ears. Depth and substance with enough quirkiness on the side, without relying on it as the main dish of who and what she is. Clara set out with a plan to write music you could "feel" and boy-howdy I feel alive listening to this CD. I'm going to put her in the company of Patti Scialfa when it comes to talent and songwriting. Yeah, I know, who? Well Patti put out two CD's ten or so years apart and I think a majority of the world missed out on two true gems. Bruce got it right tho! I do hope Clara eclipses her success as the world does need to hear music that "touches" you.

"Waterfall" will be released as a single in Canada and I can see no possible reason for it not to succeed. It has that hint of melancholy all great ballads contain. The change in tempo from verse to pre chorus to chorus is pure beauty. Clara's voice emotes with genuine passion as only one who truly owns the song can provide. Haunting instrumentals complete the package.

"Perfekt World" is so mellow and smooth with vocals that draw you in real close making you want to listen to her heart. "Birds Of A Feather" is light and airy as it bops along.

This album is diverse in tempo, attitude and ambience while remaining rock solid from first note to silence at the end of your journey. Brilliant, emotional tunes that will enlighten your world.

Visit the charm at <http://www.myspace.com/claralofaro> and decide for yourself. While there note the generosity of this true humanist.
